Copper Ridge School Uniform Policy

Revised April 2015

Immodest or distracting dress or appearance of any type is not permitted. This is not confined to clothing, but also includes fads in hairstyles, makeup or other distractions that would, in the opinion of the Principal or Assistant Principals, tend to promote student disruption, jeopardize student conduct or otherwise interfere with the educational process. Clothing or appearance will be considered inappropriate if, in the judgment of the Principal or Assistant Principals, it presents a risk to the health, safety or general welfare of the students, staff or others by the following:

1. Interferes with or disrupts the educational environment or process;
2. Is counterproductive to the curriculum goals or educational objectives;
3. Produces disorder or creates an atmosphere of threat, intimidation or undue pressure; or
4. Causes excessive wear or damage to school property.

B. Consequences of

Violation First Violation:

- The Copper Ridge School Uniform Policy/Dress Code Violation Form is filled out and sent home with the student for parent/guardian signature and needs to be returned the next school day.
- Referral to the office (if necessary) to align clothing with the dress code as follows:
 - Turn clothing inside out if it reveals something inappropriate;
 - Change into clothing that may be provided by the school;
 - Have other clothing brought to school; or
 - Remove the accessory.

Second Violation:

- Same procedure as first violation with the addition of a phone call home in order to ensure appropriate communication.

Third Violation:

- The student may receive a Scottsdale Unified School District Conduct Referral citing student insubordination with respect to dress code compliance. Behavior intervention may include daily check-in with administration.

Further

Violations:

- Could result in more severe disciplinary procedures, including suspension, in accordance with any other provision of Article B of the Uniform Code of School Conduct that is violated as a result of the dress code infraction.

Hair Makeup Jewelry	Hair, make-up and jewelry are expected to be age appropriate and not distracting to the learning environment of the wearer and/or other students. Students at Copper Ridge may wear lanyards in accordance with SUSD Code of Conduct dress code as a mandatory dress item for student identification.
Hats	Baseball caps, knit-fitted hats, and headscarves may be worn OUTSIDE ONLY .
Belts	Belts are to be plain leather or cloth and solid in color (navy blue, tan (khaki), black). Logos, writing, stripes or other graphics are not allowed on belts. Belts and belt buckles may not be decorative or ornate in fashion including metal studs, extra rivets, rhinestones, sequins, lace, embroidery, or any other decorative material. Belts must fit normally around the waist and no part of the belt may hang down.
Athletic/ Scout Uniforms	Principal approved organizations (i.e. Brownies/Girl Scouts, Cub/Boy Scouts, CRS Athletics) may be allowed to wear their uniform on the day of the event as long as it meets SUSD requirements.
Friday Spirit Days	T-Shirts imprinted with the Copper Ridge logo and *solid in color (navy blue, tan (khaki), black) denim bottoms are permissible on Fridays. No other exceptions to the above stated policies are allowed on Fridays. Principal may approve Uniform Policy incentives. *Site Council approved revision on 4/27/15	 (must be no shorter than 3 inches above knees)

II. Interpretation and Violations (Uniform Policy)

A. Interpretation: CRS Administration or teachers may question the dress of any student. The CRS Principal and Assistant Principals will have complete and final judgment on all matters concerning interpretation of the standard of dress policy. Matters concerning appearance and dress not specifically covered in the standard of dress guidelines shall be within the discretion of the Principal or Assistant Principals. (Reference Uniform Code of Student Conduct) as follows:
